NFL APPROACHES QUARTER MARK WITH KEY WEEK 4 GAMES

NFL returns to London as Jaguars face Colts on Sunday (9:30 AM ET)

Five teams – Baltimore, Denver, Minnesota, New England and Philadelphia – remain undefeated as the NFL enters Week 4.

"It's still a young season and only three games," says Eagles head coach DOUG PEDERSON, who joined Pittsburgh's MIKE TOMLIN (2007) as the only rookie head coaches to start 3-0 and win each game by at least 15 points. "We've got to continue to grind. We're only as good as the last game. Anything can happen in the National Football League. We just have to focus one game at a time. It's a one-game mentality."

The chances of making the playoffs after a 3-0 start are good but far from certain. Since 1990, when the current 12-team playoff format was adopted, 99 of the 131 teams (75.6 percent) to start 3-0 have qualified for the postseason.

"It's a testament to our team," says Broncos quarterback TREVOR SIEMIAN – who became the first player in NFL history to pass for at least 300 yards and four touchdowns without an interception in his first career road start – about Denver's 3-0 record. "We have a really good team, a really resilient group. I'm just really proud to be a part of the team."

Among the 3-0 teams are the Ravens and Eagles, who each missed the playoffs last season and are candidates to be turnaround teams in 2016. Since the 12-team playoff format began in 1990, at least four teams have qualified for the playoffs in every season that were not in the postseason the year before.

"We're always trying to get better and go 1-0 every week," says Philadelphia quarterback CARSON WENTZ, who is the only rookie in NFL history to throw at least one touchdown pass without an interception in each of his first three games of a season. "We're doing a great job of keeping it one play at a time. Everyone believes in each other and it's been three great team wins."

There are 15 teams with a 2-1 record or better – Atlanta (2-1), Baltimore (3-0), Dallas (2-1), Denver (3-0), Green Bay (2-1), Houston (2-1), Kansas City (2-1), Los Angeles (2-1), Minnesota (3-0), New England (3-0), New York Giants (2-1), Oakland (2-1), Philadelphia (3-0), Pittsburgh (2-1) and Seattle (2-1) – and seven of them did not make the playoffs in 2015 (Atlanta, Baltimore, Dallas, Los Angeles, New York Giants, Oakland and Philadelphia).

Don't count out any teams yet. Since 1990, 71 teams with a losing record after the first three games made the playoffs. That includes four teams last season – Houston, Kansas City, Seattle and Washington. So, entering Week 4, hope is still very much alive for everyone.

As the NFL approaches the quarter mark of the season, Week 4 kicks off with the Cincinnati Bengals hosting the Miami Dolphins on Thursday night (8:25 PM ET, NFLN).

Also this week, the NFL returns to London for the first of three games this season. On Sunday (9:30 AM ET, CBS), the Jacksonville Jaguars will face the Indianapolis Colts at Wembley Stadium.
