Testimonials

> RJ Webb (2018 – Buffalo Bills):

“I thoroughly enjoyed participating in the Nunn-Wooten Scouting Fellowship back in the summer of 2018. My experience with the Buffalo Bills solidified my desire to continue a career in football, transitioning from the field to the Front Office in pursuit of a Super Bowl. During my Fellowship, I gained insight into the day-to-day operations of an NFL Front office. I was able to work with Research and Strategy, Player Development, and Football Operations before taking a deeper dive into what would later become my daily responsibilities, as I was subsequently offered a position with the Buffalo Bills in Scouting and Player Acquisitions. I was surprised to see how close knit everyone worked and how supportive each department was to each other in the pursuit of winning. I am forever grateful to have been chosen as a participant.”

> Roderick Rook-Chungong (2020 – Denver Broncos):

“My experience has been great with the Denver Broncos. I have learned so much about scouting and learning about how to structure a team. I have built relationships here that will last a long time. Having this experience under my belt will definitely help me further my pursuit of becoming an NFL scout.”
